The Staff

The Missouri Lions All - State Band Director is Mr. Steve Eubanks. Mr. Eubanks just recently retired from Jefferson City High School following 25 years of service with that district. During his career at Jefferson City as assistant director and director of bands, the Marching Jay Band performed in the Pasadena Tournament of Roses Parade, the Alamo Bowl, the Fiesta Bowl, the Freedom Bowl, two appearances at the Citrus Bowl and Orange Bowl Parades, and most recently at the Gator Bowl Parade. A native of Aurora, Missouri, he received his Bachelors Degree from Missouri Southern and his Masters Degree from the University of Missouri. He plans to begin his doctoral work in instrumental conducting in the near future. You can find a bio on Mr. Eubanks and his staff on the web at www.missourilions.com.

2012 Missouri Lions All - State Band

How to become a member

* Membership will be determined by musical or performance ability, attitude, moral character, and availability of opening in the band.

* To place your application for consideration, return the application on this flyer with a $100 non refundable down payment to the Missouri Lions Band with the application. The balance must be paid by May 15, 2012.

* Please ask your high school band director or other school official to send an evaluation of your character and playing ability.

* Starting April 15, 2012 applications and evaluations will be reviewed. You will be notified of your acceptance after that date.

The Band

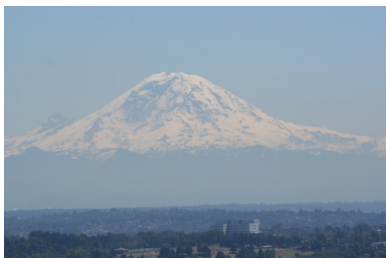

The band is a combination marching band and show band.

Versatility is the key word, as the group will perform in parades and concerts.

A variety of musical styles will be performed. The band will consist of a balanced horn line, a full drum line, and color guard.
